

Get Busy!
Do your part.

“National Inclusive Education Week” February 15-22, 2010.

- If you are a teacher, share a positive experience you have had including a student – with peers, parents or your school leaders.
- If you are a parent, provide some positive recognition and encouragement to a teacher(s) or school principal who has made a difference. Write a letter to the editor of your local newspaper; send a card; or, call the school.
- If you are a member of a parent group, suggest that your association do something to raise awareness and encourage progress in your community. Arrange to speak to local school officials, write a letter to the Minister of Education or, arrange for an event where someone shares information on inclusive education.

Final Note: share what you do with us and we will post the information on our website.
